

Nevada School of the Arts College Preparatory Piano Class

Wednesday
3:30-4:30 or 4:30-5:30 pm
Two available sessions

Nevada School of the Arts is offering group piano classes for students who are interested in pursuing music in college and need preparatory study in piano.

The course will begin with basic theory, learning to play on the keyboard using 5-finger patterns, one hand at a time. The program will include note recognition in both treble and bass clefs, naming intervals, recognizing key signature, time signatures, learning musical terms and signs, rhythm, fingering, touches of legato and staccato, chord qualities, simple sight-reading, repertoire, and last but not least, scales and triads (turtle tempo!)

The book to be used is Alfred's Group Piano for Adults, Book 1, Second edition by Lancaster and Renfrow. It is available at Amazon.com.

January 28 through May 13, 2015

15 weeks course

Maximum 8 students per class

Tuition $275

Open to sophomores, juniors and seniors

REGISTRATION DEADLINE – January 22, 2015 first come first serve

Register at www.nsamusic.org

